

World Health Day 2022 Celebration

Department of community dentistry, department of pedodontics, College of Dental Surgery from Gandaki Medical college has organized health camp at GMC, CODS in Rithhepani, Lekhnath, Pokhara. Children from mount Everest Pre School aged ranged from 2.6 years to 10 years were benefited from the camp. Oral health education particularly focusing on Early childhood caries and toothbrushing technique was provided. 40 children were examined for oral health status. Eyes examination was also done.

Oral health examination

Demonstration of toothbrushing technique to the pre-school children

Oral health education provided to the pre-school children

Oral health education provided to the pre-school children

Oral health examination